

Out on a Plantation

Fair Trade lyrics by:

Michael Komba, 27, and Dartanian Lewis, 11, Casa Maria Catholic Worker
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Tune: Up on a House Top

Out on a plantation for cocoa beans, many children can be seen,
Picking cocoa beans for your chocolate treats, and getting paid little for their hardworking feats.

Chorus

Oh no no, that ain't right! Oh no no, let's put up a fight!
Fair trade will give them more money, a living wage is what we'll see!

First comes the stocking of Nestle,
Charging customers a large fee.
Willie Wonka would be ashamed.
Child slavery will make them famed.

Chorus

Next comes the stocking of M&M/Mars,
With executives driving expensive cars.
Meanwhile kids toil on cocoa farms,
When will the public be alarmed?

Chorus

Third comes the stocking of World's Finest,
Fundraising for school would be missed.
But there are kids on the Eastern Hemisphere.
Maybe they could go to school if they lived near.

Chorus

Here comes the stocking of ADM,
Ambrosia chocolate is made by them.
Selling chocolate around the world,
Our protest banner will be unfurled.

Chorus

Lastly comes the stocking of Hershey.
Unions as far as the eye can see.
But West Africa is another sight.
Working there is simply a fright.

Chorus